

Friday Sermon Slides

June 25th 2010

Martyrs of Lahore

NOTE: Al Islam Team takes full responsibility for any errors or miscommunication in this Synopsis of the Friday Sermon

Hudhur (aba) said with the grace of Allah Almighty Jalsa Salana Germany was being inaugurated with his sermon and thanked Allah Almighty for this

Hudhur (aba) prayed that May

- Allah blesses this Jalsa in every way
- This Jalsa refreshes our faith and give it a new life

Hudhur (aba) advised

- To always remember the purpose for which the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) has set up the system of Jalsa Salana
- We can only benefit from this Jalsa if we are mindful of its aims and purpose

The aims of Jalsa Salana

- To comprehend the true meaning of Bai'at and increase in faith
- To make the love of Allah and the Holy Prophet (pbuh) take precedence over all other worldly loves
 - To increase in acts of virtuousness
 - To Increase religious knowledge and understanding
- To develop a bond of brotherhood and love with each other and increase this
- To pray for brothers who have passed away from this world while fulfilling their covenant of Bai'at

The conditions for Pakistani Ahmadis are particularly difficult, opponent have been given a freehand to do whatever they like

Hudhur (aba) said that he would want us to try to improve our spiritual standing

Hudhur (aba) said that we should pray to achieve this as well

Hudhur (aba) said to pray that Allah Almighty keeps every Ahmadi in every part of the world in His protection. Especially pray for Pakistani Ahmadis

Special prayers

May Allah grant steadfastness to Pakistani Ahmadis, strengthen their faith, protect them from all evils and accepting their sacrifice show outstanding and distinguished signs

Hudhur (aba) drew attention to some administrative matters related to Jalsa Salana

The management of Jalsa Salana is run by volunteers from all walks of life who dedicate their time and efforts to serve the guests of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)

With the grace of Allah, generally these volunteers carry out these duties selflessly only for the sake of Allah

Hudhur (aba) urged the participants to show complete cooperation with the workers and follow rules and regulations devised for the smooth running of Jalsa Salana

Hudhur(aba) advised to show complete obedience to the duty holders and not to get upset at their request or take offence.

Workers should be most polite and mannerly

Hudhur (aba) advised to stay particularly focused on the security of the event and to remain alert and aware of the surroundings

Opponents can gain entry in the Jalsa Salana despite all security arrangements in order to create disruption and mayhem

Hudhur (aba) said to show complete cooperation with the security staff, let them do a security check if asked for the 10th time. Hudhur (aba) explained that this is for your own safety therefore this should not be made into a matter of ego

Guest are only allowed to enter after security clearance

Jalsa Salana and security

Hudhur (aba) prayed that Allah Almighty protect all and help us to gain the benefit from the blessings of the Jalsa Salana as much as possible

Hudhur (aba) said that by sacrificing their lives these martyrs have given new horizon to our thoughts

Hudhur (aba) said that this biography is in no particular order. As he receives facts about martyrs, he talks about them

Hudhur (aba) continued with brief biography about the martyrs of Lahore

JUNE 25TH 2010

He was very pleasant, always smiling and had an impressive record of matchless financial sacrifices.

He showed exemplary obedient to Khilafat. He consulted Khilafat before starting any new project

He came from the family of the companions of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) and have served Jama'at in many high level capacities even at a young age

Khalil
Ahmed
Sulangi

He was dedicated, hardworking, a righteous person who was an exemplary father and husband

Martyrs of Lahore

During the attack, he could have saved his life by going to the basement, but was martyred while attempting to pull an injured brother to safety. He was Moosi.

He was 51 years of age and have recently settled in the USA. He was visiting Pakistan for a business matter

JUNE 25TH 2010

Martyrs of Lahore

Khalil Ahmed Sulangi

He was generous and always helped other. He was good at giving sound advise

He had a long standing ties with Hudhur (aba) from their Khuddam days. He was very dedicated and always made himself available if called by the Markaz under any circumstances.

He was a forerunner in financial Jihad. He made major financial sacrifices for building the Mosque in Gujranwala, reception in Daruziafat, a guest house in Qadian, another guest house, Baitul Futuh and all other projects of the Jama'at

He co-operated in all Jama'at works. He became more humble as he progressed financially.

He had strong faith and in 1974 left his family at a young age, when some family members were unable to show steadfastness at Ahmadiyyat

Hudhur (aba) said that businessmen generally don't leave business deals in the middle but Sulangi Sahib would happily do so to carry out Jama'at duty

He used to be in charge of Transport for Qadian Jalsa and always did this job deligently. He was most responsible, well mannered, cooperative and had the skill to make others work

JUNE 25TH 2010

Martyrs of Lahore

He was the nephew of Ch. Sir Zafrullah Khan, He did Bar et Law from London and practiced in the UK for sometime

He served Jama'at in many capacities and had the honour to serve 4 Khulafa

Chaudary
Ijaz
Nassrullah

He was 83 and Moosi, has settled all his accounts for Wassiyyat in his life. He actively contributed to the orphan scheme

He was always very complimentary about the people of the Jama'at of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)

Hudhur (aba) related a faith-inspiring incidence when he was unfairly sacked for standing up to the Prime Minister of the time for an illegal matter and was reinstated later as revealed in a dream

JUNE 25TH 2010

When firing started, he was asked to go to basement, but he replied, I have prayed for martyrdom. He was brave and declined a suggestion to skip the Juma occasionally for his own safety

He always used to pray and used to ask others to pray for the good ending

Chaudary
Ijaz
Nassrullah

Hudhur (aba) related how his son and grandson were saved by the grace of Allah

Maulvi Bashiruddin Sahib saw a white car in his dream and a voice said, I have come to take you.

Martyrs of Lahore

He was generous and caring and looked after poor and needy

JUNE 25TH 2010

Martyrs of Lahore

Chaudary
Hafiz
Ahmed
Kahloon

Hudhur (aba) related an incidence of bigotry of the nation that a colleague judge said that I can express regret at his death but will not pray for his forgiveness

He was very popular.

He used to recite the Holy Qur'an for hours. His little grand daughter said that may be he is reciting the Holy Qur'an in the Heavens, when she was told about his martyrdom

He was advocate by profession and was 83 years of age

He was a soft natured person. He never told anyone off, regular in Namaz

He was good natured man and used to take legal cases of poor people for free and even would help his poor clients financially

Hudhur (aba) said that these are the practical examples that need to be set by every Ahmadi for training of their children

Martyrs of Lahore

The front of his personal diary had a brave faith inspiring quotation

He was 34 years of age and came from a family that has been persecuted for a long time for being Ahmadi

He had known by a dream that his life was going to be short, so he established financial independence for his wife

He was Mossi and served Jama'at in many capacities. He had the duty for the security on the front gate of Daruzikr. He was martyred when trying to catch the terrorist.

He had leadership qualities and was keen to dedicate his life for the services of Jama'at. His children are Waqfe Nau

Chaudary
Imtiaz
Ahmed

He was very dedicated. He used to do his duty with a sense of devotion. Once he worked in Daruzikr till after midnight and woke up for Tahajjud prayers at 3.30 am. His wife asked him to take at least some rest, he replied that he was not interested in the rest in this world and was focussed on the rest in the next world.

JUNE 25TH 2010

He was a descendent of the companion of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)

He was 46 and had revised the centenary pledge on MTA on the day of the incidence

He would specially thank the Jama'at official if they gave his children an opportunity to serve Jama'at by Waqaray amal

He was martyred while doing reporting of the atrocity to the live TV.

He was kind, sociable and regular in financial sacrifice.

Ijazul Haq

Martyrs of Lahore

JUNE 25TH 2010

His family has served Jama'at in many capacities

He was good at financial sacrifice.
He was steadfast

He was 40 years of age, Moosi and bled to martyrdom with a gunshot wound to the arm

He was regular in congregation Salat and was regular in Tahajjud.

Sheikh
Nadim
Ahmed
Tariq

He was most peaceful, gentle and inoffensive person

From work, he would ring his children to remind them of Salat

This is how fathers should carry out their responsibility about Salat. In this way children develop the habit of prayers and make a bond with Allah

Martyrs of Lahore

JUNE 25TH 2010

He was most honest, hard working and had great sense of sacrifice

He served his parents well during their illnesses. He used to help ill people from his village to take them to Lahore for treatment

His face bore signs of injuries.

Amir Latif Paracha

He was regular in Salat, Tahajjud and recitation of the Holy Qur'an

He came from a distinguished Ahmadi family

He gifted his mother 4 suits shortly before his martyrdom and said, I am not sure how long will I live, please accept these

Martyrs of Lahore

His mother has been seeing his late father in her dreams for sometime

JUNE 25TH 2010

Martyrs of Lahore

He belonged to a dedicated Ahmadi family and served Jama'at in many capacities and in several ways in Japan. Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih IV once prayed that may Allah make all Jama'at Japan follow his example.

He was Moosi and his home in Pakistan was Salat centre. He was trained as a solar engineer

An embodiment of love for all, hatred for none

Mirza
Safdar
Ahmed

He was dedicated and committed to Khilafat and always fulfilled his promises. He had a simple lifestyle. He was quiet, righteous and maintained a high level of obedience. He never refused to do a Jama'at duty.

In Japan his services were equal to Waqfe zindgi. He dedicated his house to be used as mission house in Japan.

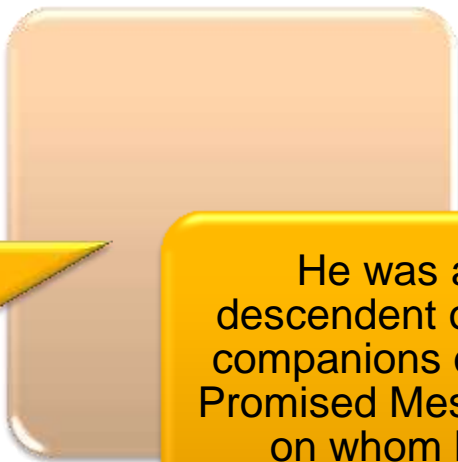

JUNE 25TH 2010

Martyrs of Lahore

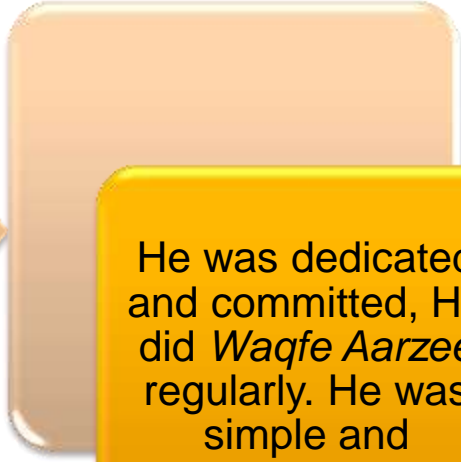

Mirza Mahmood Ahmed

His wife saw in a dream that he was in a palace with streams flowing, flowers and fresh breeze, saying this is my palace

He was a descendent of the companions of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace). He was martyred in Baitun Noor.

He was dedicated and committed, He did Waqfe Aarzee regularly. He was simple and hardworking person

Martyrs of Lahore

Hudhur (aba) commended this and said that this is the correct way of paying chanda. Some people when they are left behind in chanda, blame that finance secretary did not remind them. Hudhur (aba) said that is this is every Ahmadi's duty to take responsibility of paying their chanda properly

He was a man of prayers, regular in Salat and Tahajjud. He made regular financial sacrifice.

He was determine to eradicate smoking and would advise people to give up smoking

He belonged to a distinguished Ahmadi family. For the last 2-3 months, he has been saying to his family that his time was up

Sheikh
Mohammad
Akram Athar

He was good in doing Tabligh and very regular in chandas. On getting his pay, he will go to the home of finance secretary to pay chanda first

His daughter in law saw in a dream that she has been given 3 presents from Ansar Hall in Rabwah. The funeral of martyrs was held in Ansar Hall

JUNE 25TH 2010

Martyrs of Lahore

He saw in a dream that he was being beaten up by someone and some black dogs are after him

He belonged to a noble family. There has been shaheed amongst his family elders.

Mirza
Mansoor
Baig

He was dedicated Ahmadi and his duty was on the first barrier for the security

His wife is expecting their first baby soon.

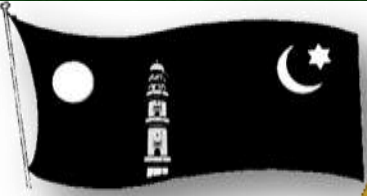

When reminded of his duty, he said, don't worry I will be there and if required, take the first bullet on my chest

He was soft spoken, obedient and had a serving nature

He was the very first person to be shot at and was martyred instantaneously when gunman opened fire

Hudhur (aba) prayed may Allah grant him pious, righteous, healthy and long living child and his wife and his mother see happiness in life, ameen

JUNE 25TH 2010

Martyrs of Lahore

Meeyan
Mohammad
Munir
Ahmed

He saw in a dream 10 years ago that a grave was being prepared next to Hadhrat Umar Farooq (ra) and he was told that this was his grave

He was the paternal grandson of the Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih I. He was poorly and late for Juma on the day of the incidence. During the attack, he was trying to close the door to block entry of the terrorist when gunman stuck the nozzle of the gun through the door and opened fire

He was hospitable, righteous and pious person. He helped the needy. He would arrange the marriages of poor girls and support the education of poor children

He was from the progeny of Hadhrat Umar Farooq (ra). He was regular in Salat and Tahajjud. Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih III (ra) said about him that he was the grandson of the person who was first to take Bai'at of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)

He was a medical doctor and held a high managerial position in Mayo Hospital Lahore. His son was injured during the attack

He was kind, caring, sophisticated and very nice to his patients. He was a loving father. He never spoke harshly.

Hudhur (aba) prayed that Allah Almighty grant perfect health to his injured doctor son.

Dr Tariq Basheer

He was committed, would regularly and repeatedly listen to Friday sermons. He was knowledgeable and read the books of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)

He was so popular that when his non Ahmadi landlord heard about his martyrdom, he fainted. He always paid the rent on time by going to the landlords home for six years.

Martyrs of Lahore

His wife saw in a dream that a beautiful house is floating in the heavens and he was in that house. She also saw in a dream that there is dreadful storm and earthquake and she could not find her husband anywhere.

JUNE 25TH 2010

Arshad Mahmood Butt

He was descendent of the family of the companions of the Promised Messiah. He was a committed Ahmadi

He was regular in Salt and Tahajjud. He paid his chanda regular and despite his disability would not depend on anyone

He has read literature of the Jama'at, he was a man of prayers. He was regular in prayers and made big financial sacrifice

Martyrs of Lahore

JUNE 25TH 2010

Mohammad
Hussain
Malhi

Martyrs of Lahore

He was dedicated member of Jama'at. He took part in all the good deeds

He was kind and caring. He was electrician by profession and would do the jobs for poor people without charge

He always excelled in the acts of virtuousness

He supervised the construction of the Mosque in his Halqa

JUNE 25TH 2010

Mirza
Mohammad
Amin

He was dedicated Ahmadi who was injured by the grenade attack and martyred 3 days later in Hospital.

He was dedicated, well mannered and sociable person.

One night before the attack, he woke up from sleep and very loudly said Allah is the greatest

Martyrs of Lahore

JUNE 25TH 2010

Martyrs of Lahore

Malik
Zubair
Ahmed

As a young man, wherever he walked he would do zikre illahi on the pavement

When his son bought a car, he told him it is better to do Zikr illahi (remembrance of Allah) in the car then to listen to tapes and CDs

He has moved to Lahore one month ago and was new to Baitun Noor. During the attack, he was injured and saw his son looking for him frantically, He said to his son, if we die, we will be martyred along with our brothers

He was regular in Salat and Tahajjud, used to watch MTA regularly. He was a keen boxer

His son wanted to insure the car, he explained to him that insurers are weak, Allah is more powerful. So give some money for chanda monthly for your car and seek Allah's protection

JUNE 25TH 2010

Chaudary
Mohammad
Nawaz

He belonged to a distinguished family and a was teacher by profession. He had the honour to serve Jama'at as Mahasil

- He had a special affiliation for Daruzikr for he took part in waqaray ammal for Daruzikr at a young age

He was dedicated and has read Jama'at literature

Martyrs of Lahore

His wife saw in a dream that someone was saying to him congratulations, your husband is still alive

JUNE 25TH 2010

He was martyred in Baitun Nur. He made to Juma prayers against all odds as he was destined to be a shaheed. He left work to go to Juma

He was severely injured by the grenade attack and bled profusely. He walked to ambulance but could not make to the hospital

Sheikh
Mubassar
Ahmed

He was simple, kind, helpful, caring, popular and good to poor people

He has a joint family system. He never gave anyone a reason to complaint.

Martyrs of Lahore

His sister in law saw a dream that he was in a white car flying towards Heavens

JUNE 25TH 2010

His daughter saw him in a dream after his martyrdom. He was standing at he door of the house and in response to her daughter's question that are you alive, he replied, I am well and I am with you.

May Allah elevate the status of all martyrs

May Allah be the Guardian and Protector of their families

May Allah help their parents to bear this atrocity with patience and courage

May Allah make their descendants strong in faith and steadfast in adhering to their faith

Hudhur (aba) prayed for Martyrs

May Allah keep everyone in his safety and protection. Ameen

JUNE 25TH 2010