

Sincerity and Obedience of Companions of Promised Messiah (as)

Sermon Delivered by Hadhrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad (aba) Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community

Friday Sermon May 25th, 2012

NOTE: Al Islam Team takes full responsibility for any errors or miscommunication in this Synopsis of the Friday Sermon

SUMMARY

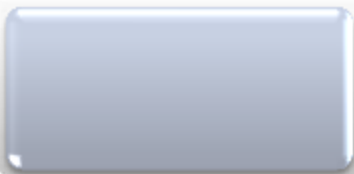

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) wrote in his book 'Haqiqat-ul-Wahi' that God had foretold him that God would put his love in the hearts of people

Hudhur (aba) read out an example of devotion to the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) in a quotation of one of his companions

Next Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih recounted accounts of some companions of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) who excelled in their sincerity, devotion and obedience

May God enable us to follow in the footsteps of these companions

Tariq Ahmad sahib was martyred in Pakistan

Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih delivered his Friday sermon from Bait us Sabuh, Frankfurt, Germany

He quoted from writings of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) in which he gave thanks to God for giving him a community of selfless and sincere people who were ever willing and ready to comply with anything he asked of them.

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) wrote that the matchless sincerity and obedience of the Companions of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) meant that they not only endured all kinds of pain for him but also did not hesitate to give their lives and this is what ultimately made them successful.

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) wrote in his book 'Haqiqat-ul-Wahi' that God had foretold him and it is recorded in 'Braheen Ahmadiyya' that God would put his love in the hearts of people.

Hudhur (aba) read out an example of devotion to the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) in a quotation of one of his companions who prayed

'that on the Day of Judgement I am included in the blessed Jama'at under your auspices as I am now. God knows that the love this humble person feels for you is such that I would sacrifice all my property and life for you. I am devoted to you with a thousand lives... May God bring about my ending in your love and obedience.'

Next Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih recounted accounts of some companions of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) who excelled in their sincerity, devotion and obedience

These accounts are a model for all of us; such devotion also becomes a source of enhancement of Taqwa.

Every single account has a profound lesson for us in the cheerfulness with which the companions offered complete obedience.

Hadhrat Fazl Illahi sahib (may Allah be pleased with him) postmaster sahib (may Allah be pleased with him) let forego his promotion and pay rise so that he could obey the advice of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) to stay put in Qadian

Hadhrat Mufti Fazlur Rahman sahib (may Allah be pleased with him)

drove the coach of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) when he was in Gurdaspur despite his son being seriously ill

He was asked by the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) to not drive his coach one day and that was the day his son died

Mufti sahib relates that this was the only instance when he could not accompany the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) to Gurdaspur and he regretted it

Hadhrat Mir Muhammad Ismael sahib
(may Allah be pleased with him)
was once advised by the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) not to sit on his own in his lodgings and he always obeyed this command

Hadhrat Malik Shadi Khan sahib
(may Allah be pleased with him)
took off his earrings after he was advised by the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) that it was not a practice of a Muslim

Wife of Abdur Rahim sahib
(may Allah be pleased with him)
posted some rice to Jammu to her family members as it was instructed that the blessed rice from the household of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) should be given to family member

Hadhrat Abdul Ghaffar sahib (may Allah be pleased with him) went to Qadian straight away when asked by the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) to come; despite Khwaja Kamalud Din's disparaging remarks

Hafiz Hamid Ali sahib (may Allah be pleased with him) gave up smoking Hukka on the advice of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) in a very systematic way, first he advised him to smoke Hukka at home and thus protecting him from bad company. Once he was rid of his bad company, the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) told him to stop smoking Hukka, which he did

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) once said that had tobacco existed in the time of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) he would have prohibited it.

Hadhrat Maulwi Aziz Din sahib (may Allah be pleased with him) delayed leaving Qadian at the instruction by a few hours. He left Qadian 2 hours after the train was meant to leave the station; miraculously he found that train was delayed and managed to travel to work

Mian Chiragh Din sahib related that once he was visiting Qadian and asked the Promised Messiah's (on whom be peace) permission to leave on a Sunday as he had to go to work the next day.

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) did not let him leave on the Sunday but said he could go on the Monday. It was 3pm when Chiragh sahib arrived at his office on the Monday.

Miraculously, it seemed that everyone in the office thought that Chiragh sahib had been there all day.

Hadhrat Mir Mehdi Hussein sahib (may Allah be pleased with him) was directed by the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) to fetch some fuel for the Langar [community kitchen]

He prayed to Allah the Exalted with intense passion and was given a Divine revelation that the fuel will be delivered to him

Later, he heard someone calling out that fuel had arrived and whoever wanted it should come and buy it.

Mir sahib was able to purchase the fuel at the price of his choice

Hadhrat Ghulam Rasool Rajiki sahib (may Allah be pleased with him) normally would not leave Qadian but happily obeyed the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) who directed him to Kapurthala for a Tabligh mission

He says it was the first time that by virtue of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) he travelled merely to serve Islam

When the Promised Messiah needed a witness for a court case in Gurdaspur, Hadhrat Khair ud din sahib (may Allah be pleased with him) travelled overnight to fetch the Maulwi Sahib who was busy teaching his students. When asked to attend to the court cases, the Maulwi sahib read the Quranic verse 'O ye who believe! respond to Allah, and the Messenger when he calls you that he may give you life...' (8:25) and straight away left with Khair ud din sahib

Hadhrat Syed Taj Hussein Bukhari (may Allah be pleased with him)

Hadhrat Syed Taj
Hussein Bukhari
(may Allah be pleased with him)
was instructed by the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) to attend Qadian for education and he obeyed the instruction

Hadhrat Mian Sonay Khan sahib (may Allah be pleased with him)

Hadhrat Mian
Sonay Khan sahib (may Allah be pleased with him)
accepted Ahmadiyyat based on many dreams and the The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) gave him the following advice; consider me truthful, offer five daily Prayers and never tell a lie.

Hadhrat Amma Jan (may Allah be pleased with her)

Hadhrat Amma Jan
(may Allah be pleased with her)
was thirsty and had just started drinking water
when the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) reminded her that water should be drunk while sitting down. She sat down straight away

Hudhur (aba) directed that each Ahmadi should adhere to these three commands

Hadhrat Nur ud din (may Allah be pleased with him) always presented himself to the audience of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) promptly, he would always sit with his head bowed and only spoke when he was directly addressed by the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)

Hadhrat Nur ud din (may Allah be pleased with him) tried really hard and was helped miraculously to get milk when the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) asked for milk, probably for a guest

Hadhrat Maulana Nur ud din (may Allah be pleased with him) walked through mud and rain overnight to obey the command of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) to be back before dawn after seeing a patient in Batala

Hadhrat Maulana Nur ud din (may Allah be pleased with him) gave precedence to the directive of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) even if it appeared against conventional medical wisdom of the time

May God enable us to follow in the footsteps of these companions

May we set high standards in maintaining connection with the Second Manifestation that has been established through the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)

By adhering to Khilafat, may we become a part of this Community which is to be the recipient of God's grace in this age

Tariq Ahmad sahib

He had gone out to buy grocery. On his way home he was kidnapped by unknown persons. He was brutally beaten up and later shot at in the head

- His body was put in a drum and thrown in a canal

According to the report by the local Ameer sahib it was not a case of animosity to the Jama'at but Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih thinks it was precisely that

- Shaheed leaves behind a widow, six sons and two daughters

Friday Sermon May 25th, 2012

Martyrs of Ahmadiyyat

May God elevate the status of the shaheed and may He make the enemies a cautionary sign while manifesting clear signs in favour of Ahmadiyyat.

It should always be remembered that unless prayers are made and signs are sought from God in such situations, the signs that God has promised do not appear.

Amatul Quyyum sahiba passed away in Rabwah on 3 May. She was from a long standing Rabwah family and leaves behind three daughters and five sons. May God elevate her station.

Sad news