Objectives of Jalsa

With regards to the importance of Friday Service, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said that the best of the days is Friday. Call down Allah's blessings upon me in abundance on this day as this is presented to me on this day.

In the ahadith it is stated concerning the importance of Jumu'ah that a brief moment arrives during Friday, where any prayer offered by a momin (righteous person) is accepted.

If we, during the sermon, or during our worship this day, focus upon reciting Durood, and call down blessings of Allah upon the Holy Prophet (pbuh)

we should be doing it with understanding and perception and knowledge and praying that Allah may establish the faith brought to the world by the Holy Prophet (pbuh)

...and make us among those who partake in the rewards set aside for those of the Holy Prophet's umma who carry out this effort.

One of the great objectives of our Jalsa is to ensure that the love of God and Prophet envelops our heart.

When we recite Durood we pray that Prophet's Grandeur is safeguarded and enemies ploys are eliminated.

We can only fulfill this objective when we convey Durood Sharif upon Holy Prophet (pbuh) from bottom of our heart and reform ourselves accordingly.

When we convene today and pray in this manner, it will draw benevolence of God towards us. We will partake of the blessings by acceptance of the prayer.

When Holy Prophet ( pbuh) is presented this Durood and prayers, we are granted from Prophet our own prayers.

Conveying Durood upon Holy Prophet (SAW) through his love will help us attain love for God.

During Friday Service, afterwards, and during the next 2 days, recite Durood with great attention so that Allah, bestowing His Mercy upon us, may turn back upon our enemies the evil of all their plans that they have put together against us.

God has told us to be kind, compassionate to one another.

In the blessed example that the Holy Prophet (pbuh) has laid out before us, we see great examples of paying dues of mankind.

We witness the role model of Holy Prophet (pbuh). Holy Prophet could not bear any difficulties encountered by the believers.

Allah has mentioned the state of the Holy Prophet (pbuh) in the Holy Quran:

عَزِيزٌ عَلَيْهِ مَا عَنِتُّمْ

should fall into trouble" (9:128)

The difficulties of one another should make us restless as per the Role Model of Holy Prophet (pbuh).

One of the objectives of Jalsa is to increase in mutual unity. This is only possible when one makes great sacrifices.

Why are those who believe in Promised Messiah (as) not able to comprehend the difficulties of others?

One year, the Promised Messiah (as) was very disappointed that his foolowers were not nice to each other and he did not let Jalsa Salana be held for a year.

Promised Messiah (as) expected brotherhood, love, compassion from members of his Jama'at.

We should increase in mutual love

We should progress in our education with respect to faith.

All friends solely for the purpose of progressing should come to this Jalsa.

We have to fulfill the conditions of this convention.

Pray for the martyrs of this Jama'at. May Allah safeguard the Jama'at from all ploys of the enemies.

This is not an ordinary convention. Our focus should be upon hearing religious teachings.

We should not waste our time by engaging in meaningless discussions or walking around the stalls.

Instead of wasting time, try to increase in religious knowledge.

Try to remember the favors of Allah and how God is fulfilling the promises he made with Promised Messiah (as). How God has caused this message to reach the corners of the earth.

Objectives of Jalsa

The Promised Messiah (as) said to increase your mutual bonds and become one spiritually. Break all cultural barriers.

Pray for one another so a great standard can be established. These mutual relations should be solely for sake of Allah.

All of us should strive to find the other spiritual benefits of this Jalsa.

Pay attention to the Jalsa programs in a manner that we have to obey afterwards. Attentively listen to the speeches, don't display laziness.

Meet one another. Many new converts testify that when they met Ahmadis from different countries, they see great love.

Listen with intention of not only learning but also obeying, progressing in faith and make it beneficial for yourself.

Those who do not listen attentively to the speeches, it will not benefit you.

He told one of them that you can be visited at any time by some members of the Jama'at, so never show any form of laziness or fatigue.

Many will try to recognize your weaknesses. Accept them.

If someone raises an objection at the Jama'at or Khilafat, do not tolerate them at all.

Dr. Noori Sahib states that even after heart attack a long time ago, he had a smile on his face & would remember God. He would always pray that may Allah enable him to fulfill his duties that were given to him by Khalifa of the time. He had great love for each and every Khalifa. A true Ahmadi loves all Khulafa.

His only purpose was to be dedicated to Khilafat. May Allah continue to grant the Jama'at such dedicated and loyal individuals.
