Essence of Worship of Allah

The very fundamental commandment, and the purpose of creation of man, is to worship God, as explained in Quran

One should be busy in their worldly business but one should not forget Allah almighty

Allah almighty mentions that we should abstain from falsehoods

Anger and wisdom cannot co-exist, avoid anger, snooping, suspicion and back-biting

Another Martyrdom in Pakistan

June 24th 2016

The very fundamental commandment, and the purpose of creation of man, is to worship God, as explained in Quran

All the commandments of Allah almighty are clearly laid out in the Quran

The month of Ramadhan is a reminder for us to focus on tarbiyatti efforts

By acting on the commandments of Allah almighty, we try to get closer to Allah so we may permanently achieve closeness to Allah

One should worship Allah & be completely devoted to Allah, rather than taking the world as one's primary objective

In the month of Ramadhan, people are acting on this commandment. People should be coming with great effort to their mosque to offer prayers

People should not count the days until the end of Ramadhan before they can go back to their previous ways

Rather, we should ensure the changes and improvements we have made during Ramadhan are a permanent priority in our life

In this Ramazan, Waqf-e-Zindagi, who have pledged to be at forefront of observing "faith over this world", should achieve this.

We should move towards the purpose of our creation, yet many people do not, they turn more towards worldly benefits

In the hearts of so many people, the love of Allah is not there. They are completely engrossed in worldly things

We need to ensure that we fulfill the purpose of our creation and even after Ramadan we turn towards worship

There should be a keen desire in our hearts to attain nearness to Allah almighty

Our intention even after Ramadhan should stay focused on worship. People should continue attending mosques

One should be busy in their worldly business but one should not forget Allah almighty

The obedience of a person is only established when he looks after his prayers & offers them on time, with attention

Every promise that you make should be based on justice & truthfulness, it is essential for a believer to be rooted in these qualities

The teaching of Allah almighty is that we must uphold truth and honesty

When a person breaks promises, he enters into falsehoods

If the importance of truth & justice is well understood, our society could be freed from many issues we face

Allah almighty mentions that we should abstain from falsehoods

FINANCIAL SACRIFICE AND WAQF-E-JADID

We should seek the forgiveness of our sins & not get punishment for our hidden weaknesses. Allah almighty accepts the repentance of people

Anger and wisdom cannot coexist

Avoid bad thoughts & do not indulge in backbiting

Thinking ill of others is such a bad disease, one should avoid it & seek forgiveness from Allah intensively if they do

Suspicion is a means of trying to find the weakness of another, this is wrong & leads to certain vices

Don't indulge in backbiting, it is similar to eating the flesh of your dead brother

May Allah almighty enable us to act upon all his commandments & attain nearness to Allah

Even after Ramadhan, we should continue the good habits we have attained during this month & attain nearness to Allah
